Newsletter: 13th September 2019

Good afternoon

Welcome back to all of our families, existing and new! It has been lovely to see our new Reception children settling in down at the Infant School and I know that the rest of the children have enjoyed their first week with their new teachers.

Clubs

Hopefully, you have all had the opportunity to sign the children up for the clubs for this term. I wanted to remind you that for clubs that are over-subscribed, we will draw names from a hat and you will be notified about arrangements. Clubs begin next week and will finish on Friday 29th November 2019.

Aldi Sports Kit for Schools

I have Dojo'd the promotion that Aldi are offering this term and to my surprise we are already filling up our sticker posters. Thank you so much for your support and please keep those stickers coming in.

Young Voices

I am pleased to say that we have registered for the Young Voices Concert, which will take place on 15th January 2020 at the Genting Arena. We were hoping to take the whole of the Junior School, but unfortunately they can't accommodate us all. The choir will be learning the songs in school to begin with but there will be a Choir club soon, more details to follow. Once the choir has been confirmed, Mrs Blackburn will send out YV details for parents, so you decide whether to go

Daily Mile

As stated on Dojo, next Monday is the Oxfam Daily Mile, which you are all invited to. The Infants Daily mile will start at 9:15am, so please do make your way to the Junior field after you have dropped your children off. Reception children will run their mile on the Infant playground. The Junior mile will take place between 10:00am and 11:00am. Please send the children in sports clothing for the day. Refreshments will be available after you've completed your mile. Please bring in your donation. Thank you so much for your support.

NEWS

Student Newsletter

The first Student Newsletter will be published on Friday 25th October. We are looking forward to the pupil voice and all the exciting jokes the children come up with.

Meet the teacher Meetings

Thank you to all the parents who have attended these meetings. I hope you have found them useful. If you were unable to attend, the PowerPoint slides will be available soon on the class pages on the website.

Midday Supervisor vacancy

We have a midday supervisor vacancy - contact the Infant school office or have a look on the website - vacancies page.

Authorised Holiday Week

This week is planned for Monday 18th May - Friday 22nd May. As a reminder, please email the school offices if you wish to take advantage of this week. We will track the children's attendance and inform you. The children's attendance needs to be above 96% to qualify for the authorised week.

Reminders

Newsletter

Again, the newsletter will only be accessible via the website. I will inform you of any upcoming newsletters via Dojo.

Y5 Trip to 'We the Curious'

A reminder that the upcoming Y5 trip to 'We the Curious' will take place on Tuesday 17th September.

Absence

It is absolutely essential that you contact the correct office to confirm your child being absent from school. Alerting the class teacher via Dojo, isn't going to be accepted as an authorised absence. Please use the correct communication avenue, so that the absence is recorded accurately. Many thanks

Peanuts

It is essential that you don't send any peanuts into school; this also includes spreads. Thank you

Scoters

I need to remind Infant parents, when they're collecting their junior children, not to allow the younger ones to take scooters out of the bike shelter or use the play equipment. Thank you
